waded out, her eyes I met, I wished the moment had been hours ; ler fellow-maids in copse and lane, Ah! still methinks I hear them calling;
The wind's soft whisper in the plain,
The cushat's coo, the water's falling.

nt now it is a year ago,
And now possession crowns endeavor took her in my heart to grow
And fill the hollow place forever.

NABBY'S HUSBAND.

A KNOCK at the Squire's door. An eager "come in" from the squire. whom any outside diversion is an intimable boon, he having just reached at uncomfortable stage of masculine invalescence when life becomes a buren not only to the so-called "patient" imself, but also to those unlucky femiine relatives whose duty it is to officiate s his "ministering angels."

Mary, the servant, came in.
"Please, Mr. Hosley, there's a woman

he wall, the wood fire which, now that he wintry twilight was settling down been to be wintry twilight was settling down been to seem could reconcile the Squire to his enforced old den of an office, and chafed at the loctor's restrictions, which as yet forbade moral police force, represented by his wife and daughter, being luckily off duty, here was nothing to prevent this proba-

"Show her up, Mary," said the Squire, cheerfully, straightening himself, and as-suming as much of legal dignity as dressmining as much of legal dignity as dressing gown and slippers permitted.
Mary disappeared. Presently the door opened again. "Why, Nabby," said the Squire, "is it you? How do you do?"
"Yes, Squire, it's me," said Nabby, dropping down with a heavy sigh into a chair; "and I don't do very well."

he coarse, black hair drawn stiffly and compromisingly back under a bonnet out five years out of date. She had sharp black eyes, and a resolute, go-ahead manner. Evidently a hard-working in the world for herself. Old Mrs. Hosley had long since gone to her reward, but in Nabby and her fortunes, the Squire in particular being her "guide, philosopher in', and a slavin' early and late, to be kinder decent and forehanded, and him no better'n a dead man on my hands, so far as helpin' any was concerned. And so I told him, time and again. He worked and despair, drove him lower and lower, but the late of the l just about enough to keep himself in and he sank down supinely into the drink. He knew he couldn't git any of Slough of Despond without effort or my money for that.

"But I stood it all till about a fortnight "But I stood it all till about a fortnight ago. I'd been workin' hard all day, helpin' Miss Barber clean house, and it seemed as if every bone in my body ached, I was so tired. I came along home, thinkin' how good my cup of tea'd taste. The first thing I see, when I opened the kitchen door, was old Hank Slater settin' there in my rockin' chair. He and Josiah were hoth drunk as—as hogs," said Nabby.

By a beautiful dispensation of Providence, whenever a poor, shiftless, goodfor-nothing man is sent into our world, some active, go-ahead little woman is invariably fastened to him to tow him along through, and keep his head above water. It's for the best, of course. What would become of the poor fellow without her?

How Hot Iron May Be Handled.

About the year 1809, one Lionetto, a Spaniard, astonished not only the ignoboth drunk as—as hogs," said Nabby, a little hard. slandering an innocent animal in her haste. Nabby was a

'They'd tracked the mud all over my her part-anxious to get on in the warld and don't never let me see your face in-the woman to give Josiah up, and let him go to the bad without a struggle. You feel a little vexed with him now, and I don't blame you. It is hard, very hard. But you know you took him 'for better or worse.' Do you think, yourself, it is quite right to break your contract because it proves the worse for your—because you are the strong one and he the weak one of the two? That don't strike me as good Bible doctrine, Nabby. 'We that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves,' you and now she felt more sad than angry. Up weak, and not to please ourselves,' you and now she felt more sad than angry. Up before her seemed to rise a picture of her

Wyandot

Office in Cunco's Building, over the Post Office.

County

TERMS: $2.00 per Annum.

CURRENT ITEMS.

A WATER-SPOUT-A teetotal speech.

OUGHT not a hermit to call his hopse

THE HEIGHT OF IMPUDENCE-Taking

SECURE-The Washington Life Insur

To Lawyers-Can you make a blind man liable for his bill, if it is payable at

THE lighting of one of the public gas burners in the streets of Paris by a flash of lightning is authoritatively reported.

LIBERAL advertisers are the men who mean business." Those who don't ad-

PUMPERNICKLE says that a woman's world; in fact a perfect honeycomb-ful

CRUDE sign-boards and curious signs ents had fled. The following is a spec-were improvised after the Chicago fire, announcing whither various establish imen: "Owing to the recent warm snap, Jones & Smith have removed to-..."

At Dubuque, the other day, a hors willing but anxious to be hung.

Chinchpoogly.'

bling in taste sugared cream or sweet-al-

OVERWORKED.—

'Pray, doctor, give me, if you please,
Some medicine for my disease:
My health and courage are all gone,
And I am weak and feeble grown."

The doctor felt her pulse, and said,

There is no cause for fear or dread; You've no disease, be not distressed You need no medicine, but rest."

"I've no disease! why, how you talk! Just see my tongue; it's white as chalk Look at it, doctor—look, indeed— And say, in truth, what does it need?"

"If you will keep it still and quiet,
'Tis all it needs; pray, madam, try it.
You overtask it at the best,
And, like the body, it needs rest."

The poor fellow is then not only vertise only do a mean business.

decline in the whaling business

VOL. XXVI.

UPPER SANDUSKY, OHIO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1871.

NO. 3.

hadn't thought on't in that light, I must turned into wrangling. She even thought he'd come back now if I wanted him to."

PIETRO CUNEO, Editor and Proprietor.

Hasn't he been back at all?" pair of pantaloons. But I didn't take no will no effort. 'Now, Nabby, you may depend upon it, it wasn't the pantaloons he was after. He wanted to see if you wouldn't relent. If he comes again, be a little pleasant to him, and I'll warrant he will stay. Give him another chance, Nabby. Josiah isn't the worst fellow in the world, by any means. He has his real world, by any means. He has his real world, by any made of living! If we could only go back means. He has his redeeming traits, after all. I believe he will do better, if you will try to help him. You know Josiah is one that bears encouragement, Nabby.'

"Try me, and see, Nabby," said the Squire, smilingly, not impervious to Nab-by's compliments. Nabby made her exit Nabby was one who always met things just as Mrs. Hosley rushed in, full of wifely indignation that the Squire had been allowed to see a "client." Nabby's home was over at "the Corners," three miles from the village. She walked rapidly along in the fast thickening darkness, with the steady, strong gait becoming the self reliant woman that she was. Yet even her unmarginative nature was not proof against the depressing influence of the chilly, raw November ick, and now she won't take 'no' for an inswer."

"Show her right up, Mary," said the groaned mournfully, and waved wildly up and down in the dim light overhead. The wind seemed to cherish a special spite. dar off. Not all the cozy comforts of his against Nabby. It blew her bonnet off and her hair into her eyes, struggled madly > dunno's he ever gave me a cross word in his life, even when he'd ben drinkin'." ound in flendish glee.

> "An awful night to be homeless, Nab-

"I don't care," said Nabby to herself, beginning to feel cross again and generally ill used as she grew wetter and colder.
"It serves him right. He's made his bed,

At "the Corners," the light streaming cheerfully out into the night from other hair; "and I don't do very well."

Nabby was a short, squarely built ticularly gloomy and uninviting. Nabby voman of fifty, with considerable gray in fumbled with stiffened fingers for the key-entry.

There is always something "uncanny" woman; yet in looking at her you could not help the conviction that something "uncanny" about going alone at night into a dark and the "something," undone, proved to be a very handswhich ran across her forehead, and threatened to lift her eyebrows up to her hair.

Naby had lived with the Squires mother fifteen years—from the time when man, like Mrs. Edmund Sparkler, with every one most many than properties and phands about to clutch the something, "undone, proved to be a very handsome britannia tea-pot. The teap to must have known it was a peace offering, with such preternatural brightness mother fifteen years—from the time when when when we expressed it, "more plague than profit," until she grew into the many feeling of the provided the thick and provided the thick and possible grow in the convection that something."

There is always something "uncanny" both going alone at night into a dark and the most and plate the conviction that something turn house. Even people of the best regulated minds experience a vague suspication of the Commission. Distractors of small-pox were revalled there and the cholera was decreasing daily.

In the wond the even people of the best in the dead, and she curred that the state of the conviction that something "undone, proved to be a very handsome britannia tea-pot. The teap of the teap of the state of the lacendary possible glostly hands about to clutch the first was a peace of small-pox were revalled there and the cholera was decreasing that the capolity possible did the mine the darkness. Nably was a wonan, like Mrs. Edmund Sparkler, with the capolity per valided there and the cholera was decreasing daily.

There is always somethin' undone, proved to be a very handsome britannia tea-pot. The teap of the best are guilated minds experience a vague suspictor of minds experience a vague suspication of the Commission. Distractors of small-pox were revalled there and the cholera was decreasing the teap of the state that the dead of the fire of the Universal that the state of the teap

"Two heads are better than one, if one of forgiveness. I wish I cou "Two heads are better than one, if one is a sheep's head," Nabby might have been heard muttering out in the wood been heard muttering out in the wood house as she stooped painfully down picking up chips; by which oracular utterance I suspect she was thinking what a good I suspect she was the was a good I suspect she was sick to death of Josiah. I can't stan' it any longer, and I've come to talk with you about gittin' a divorce. You see he's unmingled with awe. He thought her a growin' worse and worse now for a good while. I've kep' it to myself pretty much, because I was ashamed on't, and talked and talked and talked and talked to him, and said and done everything a woman could, but it seemed as if the more I talked the worse he grew."

The Trial of Communists who were engaged in the destruction of the residence of Thiers has terminated. They have all been convicted, and sentenced to imprisonment for terms ranging from two to twenty years.

The trial of Communists who were engaged in the destruction of the residence of Thiers has terminated. They have all been convicted, and sentenced to imprisonment for terms ranging from two to twenty years.

In that the State is ready to redeem.

The President has appointed Horace Hy Harrison United States Attorney for the gaged in the destruction of the residence of Thiers has terminated. They have all been convicted, and sentenced to imprisonment for terms ranging from two to twenty years.

In the German Parliament, on the 23d, a bill was introduced and advocated by the Bavarian Minister, providing for the sion, before there were any wrinkles in the smooth forehead. People thought Nabby had done well in marrying Josiah put up with each other the little while The Squire looked at Nabby's rather sharp hard face, and perhaps was hardly so surprised as Nabby expected that Josiah had not been reformed by the vigorous "talking to" he had undoubtedly mechanic, not very rich yet, it is very true; but, with a good trade and such a wife as Nabby, there seemed nothing to 'He grew more and more shifless and prevent his figuring as "one of our first hope.

By a beautiful dispensation of Provi-

Nabby was ambitious and proud-spirand warmth with which the kitchen now rendered, in some degree, incombustible go to, Nabby? glowed could not fend off the dreariness with hard soap, he discovered on the application of hot iron that their insensibility was increased. He then determined want none of Hank Slater's friends round my house." and the wind howled and wailed around the house like the spirits of the lost pleading to be taken back into human life and warmth. Such a wind stirs in even the harmless heart a vague sense in even the harmless heart avague sense in combustible with hard soap, he discovered on the application of hot iron that their insensibility was increased. He then determined on again rubbing the parts with hard soap, he discovered on the application of hot iron that their insensibility was increased. He then determined on again rubbing the parts with soap, and after this found that the hot iron not only occasioned no pain, but that it actually did not burn the hard soap he discovered on the application of hot iron that their insensibility was increased. He then determined on again rubbing the parts with soap, and after this found that the hot iron not only occasioned no pain, but that it actually did not burn the harmless heart avague sense. "Well," said Nabby, in rather a subdued tone, "he went off. And he hasn't come back. And I want a divorce."

"Now, Nabby," remonstrated the old Squire, "you don't want a divorce. I know you better than that. You are not the woman to give Josiah up, and let him go to the bad without a struggle. You feel a little vexed with him now, and I don't blame you. It is hard, very hard.

of his weak nature to resist, unaided, the "Why, yes, he come back once, for a temptation which would cost a stronger

> "I'm afraid I've been a little too sharp with Josiah," thought she. "I've sorter took it for granted I was a saint and he and begin over again, seems to me things would go better."

Just then there was a faint noise, like the clicking of a door-latch. Nabby started and looked round. All was still again sorter comfortin' to a body. Your mother's own son; just the same good heart. Would you be able to eat some of my cheese, Squire?"

"There's some one hangin' round here, stood Josiah—wet, sheepish, sorry. Once he started to go in, but his courage fail-ing, he lingered in dubious hesitation on

"I didn't know you'd want me, Nabby." replied Josiah, with all the meekness becoming a returning prodigal.

"Want you? Of course I do," said Nabby, heartily. "Come right along in. I'm goin' to have have griddle-cakes for supper, and you must tend them while I set the table." Griddle-cakes were one of Josiah's weaknesses, and Nabby knew it.
Josiah came in. If he ever gets into heaven, probably his sensations will not be one whit more delightful than they were now, as from the bleakness and umbrella when I was caught out in the rain," thought Nabby. "He was always real kind and good to me after all." bled and bobbed its lid up and down, and from the griddle the savory his life, even when he'd ben drinkin'."

Here the driving, sleety rain and piercing wind pounced down upon Nabby with renewed fierceness, hustling her madly around in flendish glee.

bied and bobbed its lift up and town, and from the griddle the savory odor of the cakes ascended like a homely incense. Josiah's face, shining with mingled heat and happiness as he turned the griddle-cakes, was something worth

Nabby stepped briskly around getting supper ready. It seemed so pleasant to set the table for two again, to have some one to praise and appreciate her cooking. The November wind might howl its worst now. Its hold on Nabby was gone. In place of all the bitter sadness that had hung heavily around her heart was a warm feeling of happiness, of comfort and hole, and finally succeeded in unlocking Josiah drew forth from under his shabby the door, felt her way in through the little coat, an exceedingly awkward and knobby "I've bought somethin' for you, Nabby,"

"I'm glad to see you so much happier good deal because things hadn't turned out as I expected 'em to do; but lately I've thought a good deal about it all, and I've Spaniard, astonished not only the ignorant, but chemists and other men of science, by the impunity with which he handled red-hot iron and molten lead, "They'd tracked the mud all over my clean floors. The cookin' stove was jam-med full of wood, roarin' like all possessed. I wonder they hadn't burned the house up before I got there. And they'd got my best tea-pot out to heat some water, and the water'd all biled away, and the bottom come out. But the worst was to see my husband a-consortin' with such scum of the earth as that miserable, low-lived Hank Slater. I tell you, Squire, I was mad. I just flung that kitchen door wide open, and stand well among the neighbors. The fact, gradually realized, that in her husband she had no help, no support, only a drag and burden, and finally a disgrace, had been a disappointment embittering her whole nature. To have a husband that on one respected, that even the boys around town called "Si Gould," was dreadful to Nabby. Perhaps it was hardly strange that she grew hard and bitter.

Meantime Nabby had succeeded in Meantime neighbors. The handled red-hot iron and molten lead, lead, drank boiling oil, and performed other feats equally miraculous. While he was at Naples he attracted the attention of Professor Sementem, who narrowly watched all his operations and endeavored to discover his secret. Sementem's efforts, after performing several experiments upon himself, were finally crowned with success. He found that by friction with sulphuric acid, diluted with water, the skin might be made insensible to the action of the heat of red-hot iron and molten lead, lead, drank boiling oil, and performed other fact, gradually realized, that in her husband that in her husband that in her husband that in her husband all lead, drank boiling oil, and performed other feats equally miraculous. While he was at Naples he attracted the attention of Professor Sementem, who narrowly was the advance of Professor Sementem, who narrowly was the advanced that the distance of the distance of the distance of the distance of the substitute of the s with sulphuric acid, diluted with water, the skin might be made insensible to the flung that kitchen door wide open, learning that kitchen door wide open, learning the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest on the latting the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest of the latting the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest of the latting the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest of the latting the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest of the latting the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest of the latting the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest of the latting the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest of the latting the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest of the latting the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest.

After having rubbed the parts which were the action of the heat of red-hot iron; a solution of alum, evaporated until it became spongy, appeared to be still more effectual. After having rubbed the parts which were the latting the fire, and having the fire, and having changed her don't never let me see your face interest.

After having rubbed the parts which were the latting the fire, and having the fire and having the f

-Golden City, Wyoming, is to have a school house to cost $20,000.

disaster occurred after the working gangs Franklin declare that the passengers are news at Humboldt, Kansas. would be found.

Washington, has received the appointment | would have to be pulled down. The Post | vember 30 as Thanksgiving Day in Illiof Agent of the British Government for the Office had sunk some eighteen inches, and nois.

assemble at Geneva. one to imprisonment for life at hard labor. and ten to various terms of confinement.

John Griffle, Secretary of the Total Ab-· The charge caused great uproar, and the local authorities commenced legal proceedings against the man who made it. It is expected in Paris that before the end of January, 1872, France will have ten army corps completely organized and fully supplied with improved arms, posted at the great military centres of the coun-

King Victor Emanual made his entry into Rome on the 21st. He was met at the gates by the heir apparent, Prince Humbert, the Ministers of the Crown, and a large body of the National Guards of the city. The populace filled the streets in immense numbers, and greeted the King with earnest enthusiasm during his progress to the Quirinal, where he has taken up his residence.

A special dispatch from Versailles to the London Standard of the 21st says the Commission for the arbitration of the Alabama claims will assemble in Geneva on the 24th of December, and that the sittings will continue all winter. About five hundred cases will be presented to the consideration of the Commission.

we've got to stay here."

criminal prosecution of clergymen who we've got to stay here."

criminal prosecution of clergymen who we've got to stay here."

criminal prosecution of clergymen who abuse the privileges of their office. This canada for the sufferers by the recent and nineteen Representatives. back?"

bill was understood to be the first of a string ever since. He's a good provider.

bill was understood to be the first of a string ever since. He's a good provider. a string ever since. He's a good provider, now he's quit drinkin', and a master hand for fixin' up things around the house, and a string ever since. He's a good provider, church upon the liberties of the people.

A Constantinople dispatch of the 23d out of requests were made for allowing free entry of articles contributed for the relief of the deceased.

and better contented, Nabby." at 110%.
"Well, I used to fret and complain a A New York dispatch of the 16th says

A Raleigh, N. C., dispatch of the 16th disgraceful practice and defiant spirit, calcined to powder. which now invokes its action, by the dis-to the regulations on this subject." The American and British Commission.

half a note will be redeemed at its full ously extended to him.

value: clearly half a note at one-half the Four of the New York savings banks, been destroyed.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that iron barges of foreign build cannot be used on the Mississippi River in the not be used on the Mississippi River in the not be used on the Mississippi River in the not be used on the Mississippi River in the not be used on the 21st that the had been sent to the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

"Well, I dunno," said Nabby, twisting life; the youthful dreams and hopes, the corner of her shawl dublously. "I changes and disappointments, the love General News Summary. "The cholera excitement has about sub- dividend or other taxes are required to sided. There are now forty-four cholera be paid. patients in the hospital at Westbank, all The following appointments were made say. It's so aggravatin' to have such a man for a husband. Besides, I dunno's he'd come back now if I wanted him to."

THE OLD WORLD.

The following appointments were made doing well. The only new case yesterday was that of Anna Atger, aged eleven years, aged eleven years, was that of Anna Atger, aged eleven years, was that of Anna Atger, aged eleven years, aged eleven years, aged eleven years, aged eleven years. 16th, which was heard in the country for who was removed from the Delaware to sus, is Conmissioner of Indian Affairs; > have been appalling. Six men were known disease spreading. The vessel is fumigate ceipts of the fiscal year, including a balwas a sinner, and scolded him right along down-hill. A nice saint I am! As proud would be found.

>
> A special disputable from Secretary D. 1870 were $180,502,471 in the treasury June A dispatch from Constantinople reports on the 17th reports the caving in of the tures, $850,986,872; balance in treasury that there were 380 cholera deaths there Oxford mine, near that city. About June 30, 1871, $109,817,477. The total during the week ending November 11. twenty acres of ground had settled. Im- number of National Banks June 30, 1871, Lord Tenterden, formerly Chief Secre- mense fissures were made in the principal was 1,839. tary of the Joint High Commission at avenues and streets, and many houses > > way. The trial in Paris of parties accused of the Squire Taylor, Charles Davis and George compte has ended. Nineteen prisoners murder of the Park family, were taken and disguised, thirty-three of whom en- mand of Frank Sherman. A New York dispatch of the 18th says tered the jail, and the rest stood guard in Acting Governor Conley, of Georgia London advices show that the nine hour the street. The negroes were hung in the has vetoed the bill ordering a special elecmovement was making great progress woods, about three miles from Charles- tion to fill the vacancy caused by Governor among the working people throughout the town. It is strongly intimated that the Bullock's resignation. country. In some of the counties masters negroes made a confession before death. had conceded to the nine hours, and it was They had not been indicted by the revolutionary movement was become probable that the arrangement would be- the grand jury, and the citizens feared ing general in Mexico. General Rocha stinence Society of Brixhan, England, has who broke in two cells with sledge ham- tionists, so that a speedy issue of the conpublicly accused the Queen of intoxica- mers and chisels, but the sheriff unlocked test at that point was imminent. Mexican

> > > A Raleigh (N. C.) dispatch of the 16th says that fifty-three men had been brought Commissioner named Scoggins, who recently shot a prisoner for talking saucy to him. Several arrests had been made. and out of 200 only 65 were retained for

The President has appointed Morrison R. Waite, of Toledo, Ohio, Counsellor to Geneva, vice Curtis, resigned.

The agricultural report says the returns dicate a larger production of cotton than was expected in October, and promise fully to make good the moderate expectations of July and August. There had been no killing frosts, and the quality was good in all sections. The yield per acre, as indicated by county estimates, is largest in

The total registration of voters in the further damage to property.

The Russian frigate Svetland arrived

The President has appointed Horace H3 by Stebbins of the appointment.

been convicted, and sentenced to impris-Collector of New York city, vice Mur-give Beveridge, Republican, 136,441; onment for terms ranging from two to twenty years.

In the German Parliament, on the 23d, a bill was introduced and advocated by the Bavarian Minister, providing for the criminal prosecution of clergymen who characters the privileges of their office. This content of the conte The grew more and more shiftless and good-for-nothin'," continued Nabby, "till, finally, he didn't do much but set round the kitchen fire, half boozy. If there's anything I hate," bust out Nabby, "It's a man forever settin' round the house underfoot. And there I was a-takin' in washin', and a-slavin' early and late, to be kinder in', and a-slavin' early and late, to be kinder in', and a-slavin' early and late, to be kinder in the first in the forest in the first in the forest in the forest in the forest in the first in states that six Ku-Klux had been arrested Relief Committee, Captain Langworthy sisted by an extensive privateering fleet, in Yancey County, charged with various stated that the examinations of the burnt under Russian letters of marque, she region had brought out the fact that not could defy all Europe." less than twelve hundred persons met a The Grand Duke Alexis was formally expelling six more cadets from the Naval fiery death throughout that terrible catas- received by the President, at the White Academy at Annapolis for hazing, and trophe, a great majority of whom were House, on the 23d. "Let it be distinctly understood blackened and disfigured beyond recogni- The Union Republican National Com-

missal, if necessary, of every cadet to the very last who refuses the fullest obedience

The Grand Duke Alexis was given a formal reception by the citizens of New York, on the 21st. General John A. Dix publican National Convention. they are lasting, and never can be broken. foots up $906,310.67. He would pass rapidly through New York Rev. Alexander Ellis (colored), of Bosshortly issue a circular concerning the re- when he returned to New York he should Narragansett Steamship Company for re-value of the original, and less than half a in which the Tammany-ring leaders have for the season was thought to be closed. note will not be redeemed unless there is a heavy interest, were "run" upon by positive proof of the missing part having their depositors on the 18th, and two of Odd Fellows of Virginia, died on the them-the Bowling Green and the Guar-night of the 22d. dian Savings Banks-were compelled to several miles around. Fortunately the the hospital. The agents of the steamer M. W. Reynolds, Receiver of Public Mo-had withdrawn, or the loss of life would doing well, and there is no sign of the Treasurer Spinner reports that the re-A special dispatch from Scranton, Pa. 30, 1870, were $980,904,349; expendi-

Governor Palmer has designated No-presentation of claims of British subjects was still settling. The whole town was The Grand Jury of the Criminal Court before the tribunal of arbitration shortly to in danger, as the ground was still giving in Chicago, in a report on the 20th, say they fully indorse and commend the action of Mayor Mason and General Sherassassination of Generals Thomas and Le- Johnson, the negroes charged with the idan in taking the means they did to protect the city at the time of the fire. They half-way. Accordingly, she walked to the outside door, and, opening it quickly, peered out into the darkness. There one to imprisonment for life at hard labor by a mob of about forty persons, masked mer was doing patrol duty under comby a mob of about forty persons, masked mer was doing patrol duty under com-

Recent dispatches from Matamoras say they would escape punishment. No was marching to the relief of Saltillo. The one attempted to interfere with the mob, place was severely pressed by the revoluthe third, seeing he could not keep them citizens had subscribed money for the reout. A Coroner's inquest rendered a ver- lief of Chicago and for the aid of sufferers diet that deceased came to their deaths by the fire in Wisconsin.

by violence, being hung by parties un-A St. Thomas dispatch of the 16th says the Captain of the steamer Florida, then in that port, had called upon the American Consul and demanded protection, stating there from Rutherford and Cleveland, on that he was ready to proceed to sea, but charges of Ku-Kluxing a United States was afraid on account of the Spanish war

> The Solicitor of the Treasury decides that any passing steamboat carrying petroleum contrary to law is subject to seizure; but the oil itself is not; also, that when carried according to law, all petroleum must be marked at what degree of Fahrenheit it will ignite, and the transportation of coal oil on passenger steamers is entirely forbidden.

> J. E. White, of Illinois, has been appointed Assistant Superintendent of the railway mail service, Fifth Division, vice George W. Wood, resigned.

The Grand Duke Alexis arrived in Washington on the evening of the 22d. The depot was thronged with a large mond paste, District of Columbia shows 12,157 whites crowd anxious to see him. He was the > don, steward; Webster Cooper, second cook; Frank Flowers, waiter; Warren Mitchell, oiler; Driscoll Sullivan, Patrick are very glad to learn that the marriage of Mahoney and Thomas Rourke, deck

Henry J. Stebbins was, on the 22d, iffe.

If the first of the firs

all the counties in the State but Lawrence, throwing them off the top step, whence they would roll down to the story below, where his partner took charge of them, and rolled them into a hole in the vicinity The Georgia Legislature has passed the Election Bill for Governor over the acting of the stairway, where they were de

Gold closed in New York on the 23d at 1103%.

A New York dispatch of the 16th says the Committee of Seventy had evidence of false counting in nine wards, which would result in unseating two more Tammany Assemblymen.

The official returns for Governor of New Jersey show Parker's majority to be 6,007.

Wisconsin, this privilege only extending at 1103%.

A dispatch from Washington to the New York Herold of the 23d says that reliable information of the real object of the visit of the Grand Duke Alexis to the United States reports that "he is charged with a mission of an important and delicate character to our government, it being nothing less than a proposal for an alliance."

A dispatch from Washington to the New York Herold of the 23d says that reliable information of the real object of the visit of the Grand Duke Alexis to the United States reports that "he is charged with a mission of an important and delicate character to our government, it being nothing less than a proposal for an alliance."

Richard B. Connolly has resigned the Comptrollership in New York city, and alliance.

A dispatch from Washington to the New York Herold of the 23d says that reliable information of the real object of the visit of the Grand Duke Alexis to the United States reports that "he is charged with a mission of an important and delicate character to our government, it being nothing less than a proposal for an alliance."

A dispatch from Washington to the New York Herold of the 23d says that reliable information of the real object of the visit of the Grand Duke Alexis to the United States reports that "he is charged with a mission of a work on hog cholera, and Margaret in the States reports that "he is charged with a mission of a work on hog cholera, and Margaret in the States reports that "he is charged with a mission of a work on hog cholera, and beautiful the New York city. In the New York Leaves and Alexis to the United States reports that "he is charged with a mission of a work on hog cholera, and beautiful the New York City. I thought a good deal about it all, and the stree's considerable made up my mind that there's considerable comfort for every one in this world, after all. We mayn't get jest what we want, but all. We mayn't get jest what we want, but the many Assemblymen.

The official returns for Governor of comptrollership in New York city, and alliance, offensive and defensive, between the street of the many Assemblymen.

The official returns for Governor of comptrollership in New York city, and the two nations. A European war is ap-New Jersey show Parker's majority to be 6,007.

A Raleigh N C dispatch of the 16th

A Raleigh N C dispatch of the 16th

A Raleigh N C dispatch of the 16th At a recent meeting of the Milwaukee the active aid of the United States, or as-that the Academy will be purified of this tion, while others, even to their bones, were mittee has been called to meet in Wash-delivered a short address of welcome, to which the Duke responded, returning his ceived up to the 23d by the New York thanks. He said the feelings between the Chamber of Commerce Committee for the the 17th until the 6th of December. One United States and Russia are as strong as Relief of Chicago and the Northwest to pay his respects to the President, and ton, has recovered $400 damages from the demption of mutilated currency. It will derive great pleasure in accepting the provide that, after January 1, more than kind hospitality which had been so gener-steamer Providence. The Illinois River, at Peoria, froze over on the night of the 22d, and navigation

Robert B. Prentiss, Grand Master of Republican.

Advices from South America report that Peru was terribly shaken by an earth-quake on the 5th of October. There was considerable damage done to buildings in Iquique, and great panic among the peo-ple. The effects were more disastrous in the interior, where the towns of Pica and Matilla were destroyed, scarcely a house being left standing. A fire succeeded the earthquake in Pica. At Varaipacca, the church, Pantheon, eighteen houses, and the dam of the river, were destroyed. The towns of Usgamago, Guazquina, and Pachica also suffered severely. Very few lives were lost. The steamer Panama felt shocks on the 4th and 10th, but no buildings were damaged.

THE Post-Office Department in Washington recently received from the Secretary of the Treasury a box containing A CAPITAL BUSINESS-Lending money 19,500 cancelled postage and revenue stamps. The stamps were forwarded to "CHEST PROTECTOR"-A good padstamps. The stamps were forwarded to the Treasury by a lady residing at Bridge-port, Conn., who says that she is one of a Bible-class; that she was told by the Su-perintendent of her Sunday School that if she would collect one million stamps the government would give her $300. She therefore forwarded a part of the required A WELCOME SHIP AT ANY TIME-Friend Cars are taxed three cents apiece in SANGUINARY REVOLUTION-Circulation number, and requested pay for them pro rata. She says that if the government wants a collector of defaced stamps she WHAT is higher when the head is off will accept such position for a reasonable compensation. General Terrell, Third As-sistant Postmaster General, replied to her MINING IN SOCIETY-Taking your grog etter, saying that cancelled stamps posess no value whatever, and that the newspa-School boys hear with pleasure of the per rumor to the effect that the govern-ment will pay for such stamps is doubt-less intended for a sell. RELATIVES of the killed Chinamen at

WHILE at a friend's house, a few evenings ago, we took part in a conversation on the sufferings of the houseless and hungry people of Chicago. One of the company was a boy of ten years, who had two hundred dollars in a savings bank. His father said to him, "Frank, we must all give something to the destitute and afance Company has cash assets more than sufficient to reinsure every risk. flicted men, women and children of that How much will you give? You some money of your own in the Whatever you are willing to give, will send to-morrow in your name to the Mayor of Chicago, and tell him that it is from a generous boy in Brooklyn, to help keep warm the little feet and hands of the children of Chicago." The lad to whom this fatherly speech was addressed blushed

An indignant gas consumer says that there's no use in abusing the gas com-panies, for they've always a vile retort a moment, then burst into tears, and out of a heart full of charity exclaimed, "Father, send it all!" And the whole two hundred dollars—the sum total of the boy's slow savings, was sent next day on its errand of mercy. We happen to know that the boy's father took out these two hundred childish dollars, but put back It has been estimated by Senator Carpenter that the number of lives lost in Wisconsin during the late conflagration was from twelve to eighteen four hundred into their place. And we thought of Shakspeare's line, "The quality of mercy is twice blest."

-[Vineland (N. J.) Weekly.

REMOVING LARGE TREES.-When it is desirable to move a large tree, the depth of winter, when the ground is frozen, should be chosen for the operation. Not only deciduous trees, but any kind of evergreens, even hemlocks, the most difficult to remove, may be safely trans-planted at this season. It is obvious that the time to prepare for such work is be disappeared in the ground where a leak in the water main had washed away the soil underneath, leaving the astonished rider astride of where the horse should have fore the ground becomes frozen. A trench should be dug around the tree sufficiently a large mass of the roots, and sufficiently deep that they may be undermined with-out being disturbed. It should then be partly filled up with leaves or coarse litter, they let from fifteen to forty reporters for the newspapers "interview" him for three which will preserve the bottom from freezing. In February or March, when the frost is most severe, the litter may be THE Africans consider the white ant as taken out, the tree completely undermined, and the frozen mass of earth around the a rare delicacy. Mr. Smeathams, an English traveler, pronounces them to be "delicate, nourishing and wholesome, resemroots pried out of the hole and placed on a stone-boat. It may now be conveyed to its new home, which should have prepared and protected from the frost. Sufficient earth from the surface or from A MARRIED gentleman of Elizabeth, N. When the spring arrives the tree will settle into its place without further care, except perhaps a little filling up, and will be improved rather than injured.—[Hearth and Home.

A Dangerous Predicament.

THE men on the mixed train going west yesterday morning had a pretty good-sized sensation just as the train arrived at Bothwell. As the noise of the wheels subsided, unusual and exciting sounds which all along the passage from the Sus-Mr. Rughoonathdas Madhowdas, a Ku-pola Bunia merchant of Bombay, with pension Bridge had remained under lock and key, attracting no especial notice from any one, as no one on the train seemed aware of its true contents. Gradually the noises grew louder and more excited. Dhuncoorbal, the daughter of Shet Gud-hurdas Mohundas, and the widow of Luchmichand Dhurumsey, was celebrated at Scuffling was heard, accompanied by yells and imprecations from a human voice, and a series of low, fierce snarls A LETTER to the Universe contains a story of a remarkably bulky taper having been sent to the Vatican—no one knew and growls, as from an enraged and power-ful animal; then a shuffling to and fro, been sent to the Vatican—no one knew by whom—accompanied by a request that it should be placed in the Pope's private all the counties in the State but Lawrence, give Beveridge, Republican, 136,441; liayes, 116,854; majority for Beveridge, 19,587. Lawrence County would probably reduce Beveridge's majority a few hundred and found of contain a small Orsini shell.

A Wayyaya of a family in Germantown and grows, as from an enraged and power full animal; then a shuffling to and more excited but perfectly unintelligible exclamations. The men were at a loss what to make of all this, and marveled exceedingly. A crowd collected, and noises of the same character continued within. There appeared to be a terrible rumpus inside the car, which, each moment grew more desperate and power. within. There appeared to be a terrible rumpus inside the car, which, each moment grew more desperate and alarming. All at once a violent thumping against the door, and the voice of the man, which had A MEMBER of a family in Germantown (Pa) was awakened a few nights since by a singular noise, and arose on the lookout for burglars, but was surprised to find his alarm occasioned by two rats, who had evidently formed a partnership. One rat was on the attic floor, rolling walnuts to the top of the stairway, and then in exclamatory appeals, "Brek door! brek door! Ingun get kill!" After which the struggle seemed to be renewed more furiously than ever, "Ingun" giving vent to short yells of pain and distress. No time ed at once to obey the call and break the lock. No sooner had the door been partially opened than out sprang a young Indian in a terribly excited state of mind, minus his hat, with his clothing hanging in shreds about his body, and displaying several bleeding wounds. He was well nigh exhausted, but did not stop run-ning till he got behind the station-house in a place of safety, where he stood pant-ing for breath for some minutes before any one of those who surrounded him could elicit any information from him as to the door, wanting to get out, too, and pursue One of the drollest occurrences in the annals of gallantry is related of Gibbon, and not caring to jump into the immediate annais of gallantry is related of Gibbon, the historian, who was short in stature, and very fat. One day, being alone with the beautiful Madame de Cronzas, he dropped on his knees before her and made a declaration of love in the most passionate terms. The astonished lady rejected his suit, and requested him to presence of so many persons, Bruin re-coiled and sneaked into a corner, from were several other animals in the car, some of them in cages and some securely fastened up with chains and ropes. Among them was a young cub belonging mittee has been called to meet in Washington, while others, even to their bones, were calcined to powder.

The Grand Duke Alexis was given a formal reception by the citizens of New York, on the 21st. General John A. Dix delivered a short address of welcome, to or sleepy to take any part in the fuss. The collection, it appears, belonged to a traveling showman, who proposed to exhibit in a western town. The Indian boy, for he was scarcely out of his teens, although was scarcely out of his teens, although big and muscular, as soon as he could collect his ideas, and began to realize that he was safe and sound, related that he was employed by the proprietor at $8.00 a month to attend the animals in their trav-els as keeper; that he had been shut up with them in the car for nearly three days. with nothing to eat but bread and turnips, and with only water to drink, that the old and with only water to drink, that the old bear had become restive in the car while on the journey, probably from hunger and thirst. He thought every moment he would have to give in, and consent to be eaten up for breakfast by the she bear and her interesting offspring. Twice she got her arms around him, and would certainly THE way Mark Twain introduced him transportation of grain from St. Louis to New Orleans.

Datus E. Coon, of Alabama, has been appointed United States Consul at Rio de Janeiro, and Charles G. Dyer, of Illinois, Consul General at Beirut.

The case of Jane Maddern, for the receivery of $5,000 from the Staten Island Railroad for the death of her husband by the explosion of the Westfield, resulted in new honds are exempt. From texation in the east section of Halifax County, N. S. The cook on the state at the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the death of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt of the State to be $34,800,000.

In the debt of the Legislature, shows the debt self to a Boston audience, a few evenings since, is told by the Advertiser: "The Railroad for the death of her husband by the explosion of the Westfield, resulted in a disagreement of the Jury.

A New York dispatch of the 17th says:

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue Revenue Revenue Revenue Railroad for the death of her husband by the explosion of the Westfield, resulted in a block of corundum—a material as hard as diamond—an inch and a half deep, in less than twenty-five minutes.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue and interest of three hundred pounds and a steam jet of introducing Mr. Samuel Clem-mand and a steam jet of three hundre